

New England History Teachers Association

Bentley College

Waltham, Massachusetts 02452-4705

Publisher of The New England Journal of History

Founded in 1897, the NEHTA is the nation's oldest association of teachers of history and social studies in the United States. Through its publications and activities, the NEHTA provides teachers, students and academics the opportunity to engage in meaningful conversations about the teaching and learning of history and social studies. Your membership in the NEHTA entitles you to these benefits:

- Subscription to our academic journal, The New England Journal of History
- Subscription to the NEHTA Newsletter and Forum
- Reduced registration for conferences, such as the Northeast Regional Conference (NERC)
- Participation in content-specific activities sponsored by the NEHTA
